Re: 1:19-cv-09362-LJL

Pinkston v. Whole Foods Market Group, Inc.

Dear District Judge Liman:

This office, with co-counsel Michael Reese, Reese LLP, represents the plaintiff. In accordance with your Honor's Individual Practices, plaintiff and defendant request an extension of sixty (60) days for defendant to file an answer or respond to the complaint.

The original date by which defendant is required to answer or respond is Monday, March 2, 2020. There have been no previous requests for an extension of this date. No previous request was granted or denied. Defendant consents to and joins plaintiff in the present request.

The reason for the request is to provide the parties additional time to consider how to proceed, such as a motion to dismiss or answer by defendant, an amended complaint by plaintiff or a resolution of the issues based on good faith discussions. This request is submitted at least 48 hours prior to the original compliance date.

This request affects the conference date of Tuesday, March 31, 2020 and the submission of the Case Management Plan and Scheduling Order a week prior to that date. Plaintiff and defendant request an adjournment of the conference and accompanying submission.

The original date of the conference was January 13, 2020. There has been one previous request for an extension of this date. This previous request was granted. Defendant consents to and joins plaintiff in the present request. The parties propose that the conference be adjourned to Friday, May 1, 2020 with the accompanying submission made one week prior to this date. Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/Spencer Sheehan
